

Valores

Administración de Empresas UPR Cayey

Department of Business Administration: Values

Learning

- ▶ Learning - Promoting continuous learning, in order to help us discover the importance of acquiring knowledge through studies and reflections of daily experiences.

Leadership

- ▶ Leadership - Developing leadership, which implies making firm decisions and having a strong desire to meet our objectives, positive attitudes toward work and empowerment of every project or tasks. We believe that leaders empower those around them by sharing knowledge and rewarding individual effort.

Communication

- ▶ Communication - Developing communication to ensure and maintain good relationships in all the areas of our lives, particularly family, work and with people closest to us to facilitate the coexistence and harmony in any place.

Respect for people

- ▶ Respect for people - Recognizing that people are the most important resource of our institution we value diversity and enhance respect towards others promoting open discussions and fair dialogue with students, faculty and community with dignity.

Quality

- ▶ Quality - Believing in quality as the cornerstone of our Program processes and learning experience, we promote quality in our courses and every work or task doing well and considering the quality expectations of our stakeholders.

Community

- ▶ Community - Believing in making every community around us a better place to live considering their needs, we help communities to promote a relationship of prosperity.

Commitment

- ▶ Commitment - Believing in the ideal of commitment, we develop committed persons to fulfill their obligations doing more than expected in their family, work, community and ways of living.

Honesty

- ▶ Honesty - Developing a person capable to choose between right or wrong, making honesty as a way of living, and to proceed according to their conscience in full exercise of its freedom.

Ethics

- ▶ Ethics - Developing a person capable to choose between right or wrong and to proceed according to their conscience in full exercise of its freedom.